2025 Guest Climbing Permit Announcement and Information

Guest Climbing Permit Applicants:

The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) is accepting application submissions for Rock Climbing Guest Special Recreation Permits for Red Rock Canyon National Conservation Area (RRCNCA) starting June 15th, 2024. If you are interested in applying for a Guest Permit for the 2025 calendar year (January-December), you will need to read the following information and submit a 2930-1 Special Recreation Permit Application.

The two types of Guest Permits include eight commercial and four educational/organized group for the calendar year. Guest Permits authorize guided rock climbing in RRCNCA for one 10-day trip or two 5-day trips in 2024. Permits are limited to two tours per day per climbing area and 12 people per climbing area per route. If the BLM receives more than eight commercial or four educational/organized group applications from interested parties, the submitted applications will go through a lottery system by random selection. There will be no preference based on last year's selections. Applicants not chosen by lottery will be placed on a waiting list.

Applications must be submitted or postmarked by 11:59 p.m. on August 15, 2024. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered. Potential Guest Permit selection will be drawn no later than September 16, 2024. All applicants will be notified, either way, of results by September 30, 2024.

All groups who receive an SRP will be limited to utilizing selected routes and areas in RRCNCA. The list of these routes and areas with GPS coordinates are available online. If any additional routes or areas are requested, the permittee shall pay the costs of the Environmental Analysis required for those areas. This will also delay your permit by a minimum of 180 days or more.

The commercial use fees shall be the prepaid $130 minimum annual fee or 3% of gross receipts, whichever is greater. Education/organized group fees are the greater of $130 or $7 per person, per day.

- Commercial use is for business or financial gain. Educational permits are from accredited, educational institutions that give credit for classes.
- Organized groups do not charge or give compensation for trips beyond sharing expenses such as a school club.
