Recreation Fee Program Spending & Accomplishment Highlights 2023

Management Plans

Muddy Mountain Travel Management Plan Area

Amount Expended: $123,018.00

In 2023, the Las Vegas Field Office worked on two Management Plans. The Logandale Trails Special Recreation Management Area (SRMA) Resource Management Plan (RMP) Amendment and Travel Management Plan (TMP) and the Muddy Mountains SRMA TMP. The TMPs outline the network of routes to be designated for recreational use throughout each SRMA and balance the need for recreational access with natural resource protection and safety.

Public Lands Clean-Ups

Clean-up at Nellis Dunes

Amount Expended: $10,000.00

The Las Vegas Field Office successfully conducted clean-ups at Christmas Tree Pass, the Great Unconformity, Lime Kiln Canyon, Logandale Trails, Nellis Dunes, and several other sites throughout the Las Vegas Field Office. These clean-ups were conducted by BLM staff, volunteer groups, and volunteers from Special Recreation Permit holders. On average, each clean-up event had approximately 25 volunteers and removed 5 tons of trash including furniture, tires, boats, shooting trash, and dumped vehicles.

Recreation fee dollars are an investment in outdoor recreation. Current and future generations benefit as 100% of the funds collected are reinvested in the facilities and services that visitors enjoy, use, and value.
