Are you an artist looking to deepen your connection with Canyons of the Ancients National Monument? Apply for the 2025 Artist-in-Residence Program by September 15, 2024 for winter and summer residencies! In partnership with the Southwest Colorado Canyons Alliance, this program invites artists to create transformative art experiences inspired by the monument's natural, cultural, and historic heritage. Selected artists receive complimentary accommodations from Willowtail Springs, financial support, special access to the Monument and Curation facility, and marketing exposure.
