

Fire Prevention Order

Northern California District, Redding Field Office CA-360-24-02

Due to dry conditions, high fire danger, and high fire suppression activity the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Redding Field Office is amending Fire Prevention Order CA-360-24-01 to temporarily prohibit all recreational target shooting at the Spring Branch Road shooting area in Tehama County. The following acts under the authority of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA) of 1976 (43 U.S.C. 1701, et seq.) and pursuant to 43 C.F.R. §9212.2, on BLM-managed public lands, areas, roads, waterways, and trails in the Redding Field Office, starting August 5th, 2024, and continuing until further notice. This order is in addition to Fire prevention Order CA-360-24-01 and includes acts already prohibited year-round under 43 C.F.R. § 9212.1, BLM-California Fire Order CA910-2020-001, and/or certain California state laws.

In the interest of wildfire prevention, public safety, and in compliance with 43 C.F.R. §9212.2, these BLM actions complement and support state and local wildfire prevention laws and regulations, which apply to all BLM-managed lands within California.

Acts prohibited and defined under this order:

- Recreational target shooting in the Spring Branch Road shooting area in Tehama County.

Target shooting in other locations where allowed is permitted from ½ hour before sunrise until 12:00 noon. Persons engaged in target shooting shall have a shovel or a fire extinguisher available to extinguish a small fire. It is illegal to possess or discharge any ammunition with a steel jacket, steel core, armor piercing, tracer, exploding type projectile, or any other incendiary type ammunition or device. Targets made of material that emit sparks or explode are prohibited. Nonlead ammunition is not restricted for persons hunting on BLM-managed public lands. Hunters must abide by State of California laws and regulations.

Pursuant to 43 CFR 9212.2 (3), the following persons are exempt from this order: Anyone with a special-use permit, specifically authorizing the otherwise prohibited act or any Federal, State, or local Officer, or member of an organized rescue or fire fighting force in the performance of an official duty.

Penalties for violating this order:

Anyone who is found guilty of violating a fire prevention order, which may be classified as a Class A Misdemeanor Offense under 43 USC 1733(a) FLPMA , 18 USC 3559, and 18 USC 3571 Sentence of Fine - Sentencing Reform Act, Oct. 12, 1984, that does not result in death, may be fined not more than $100,000 and/or imprisonment for not more than 12 months, or in accordance with the applicable provisions of 18 USC 3571. Restitution for total fire suppression and damage costs incurred may be borne by the trespasser. For questions, please call (530) 224-2100, Monday – Friday, 7:45 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.
