Looks good to me. I will finalize the RFQ and should have it out this evening if you are good with everything so far.

I think we're good to go. So it will go to the 3 contractors for proposal tonight? If you need me to do ANYTHING else - just let me know. This is my number one priority too. What is the projected timeline if everything goes according to plan? Ted wants to share this with the ASLM today at 130.

If discussions and evaluation of proposals go quicker is it possible that we could award sooner? I am not going to communicate this as I know it could just as easily go the other direction. Is there any SOL review required?

There is no SOL review. It may go quicker, yes.
